

Old Bikes can Change Lives

What: Come to help pack and collect bicycles for shipments to underdeveloped areas. Learn how old, unused bikes can improve the conditions of so many families around the world. The program is organized by Social Action for Everyone (SAFE), an interfaith organization designed by and for high school students to promote interreligious understanding through collaborative social action.

Who: All teenagers who want to participate in interfaith dialogue and social activism.

When: Sunday, September 11th, 1:30-4:30

Where: King Farm Homestead

1199 Grand Champion Drive Rockville MD 20850

(Corner of Grand Champion Drive, and Piccard Drive)
